

The correct answers:

Please answer the following questions with TRUE or FALSE:

- | | | |
|---|-------------|--------------|
| 1. Boston exanthem is caused by Coxsackie A viruses | TRUE | FALSE |
| 2. High grade fever (40 °C) is characteristic of sixth disease | TRUE | FALSE |
| 3. Childhood exanthems are solely caused by viruses | TRUE | FALSE |
| 4. Fifth disease rash starts with a lacy pattern on the extremities | TRUE | FALSE |
| 5. The treatment of erythema infectiosum involves antibiotics | TRUE | FALSE |

Please select the most appropriate answer for the following questions:

1. Scabies is caused by:

- A. Viruses
- B. Bacteria
- C. Fungi

D. Parasites

2. Infection by the human louse is termed:

A. Pediculosis

- B. Myiasis
- C. Tungiasis
- D. Leishmaniasis

3. Forchheimer spots are seen in:

A. German measles

- B. Hard measles
- C. Erythema infectiosum
- D. Rosela infantum

4. Which one of the following is TRUE regarding the Thompson sign (Pastia lines)?

A. It is characterized by petechial lesions on the soft palate in scarlet fever

B. It is seen in cutaneous infection by group A beta hemolytic streptococci

- C. It is defined by the intensification of rash in skin folds in the enteroviral rashes
- D. It is characterized by the presence of postauricular and suboccipital lymphadenopathy

Good luck!