022 Dermatology Mini Osce – 6th rotation

Question 1

A. What is the diagnosis? Tinea capitis
B. Name 1 oral drug given in this condition. Griseofulvin or Terbinafine

Question 2

What does this defect make skin changes shown in the picture?

Depigmentation patches, destruction of melanocytes

Question 3

1. What is the diagnosis? Shingles
2. Mention a long-term complication in elderly. Chronic postherpetic neuralgia

Question 4

Name this sign. Wickham's striae

Question 5

An elderly woman complaining of easy bruises on her skin, name this condition in 1 word:

Atrophy

Question 6

A girl complaining of these marks when she scratches her back, what is the medical term for this?

Dermatographism

Question 7

Young woman who is often exposed to water at work has non painful swollen nail, What is the diagnosis?

Chronic paronychia

Question 8

What is the diagnosis?

Head lice

Question 9

Describe these areas in 1 word.

Flexors

Give one differential diagnosis.

Eczema, atopic dermatitis

(There was also a pic of a rash in the inner thigh near the groin area but I couldn't find a similar one)

Question 10

Name a secondary lesion of this condition.

Scarring, excoriation, hyperpigmentation

