

1. What is the diagnosis? erythema nodosum (sterp infection)

2.
nits.

a) what is the structure shown in the image ?
B) what is the diagnosis ? hair lice.

3. 20 year old patient, known case of atopic dermatitis, with a 2 days history of sore throat and low grade fever , what is the diagnosis?
eczema herpeticus
-

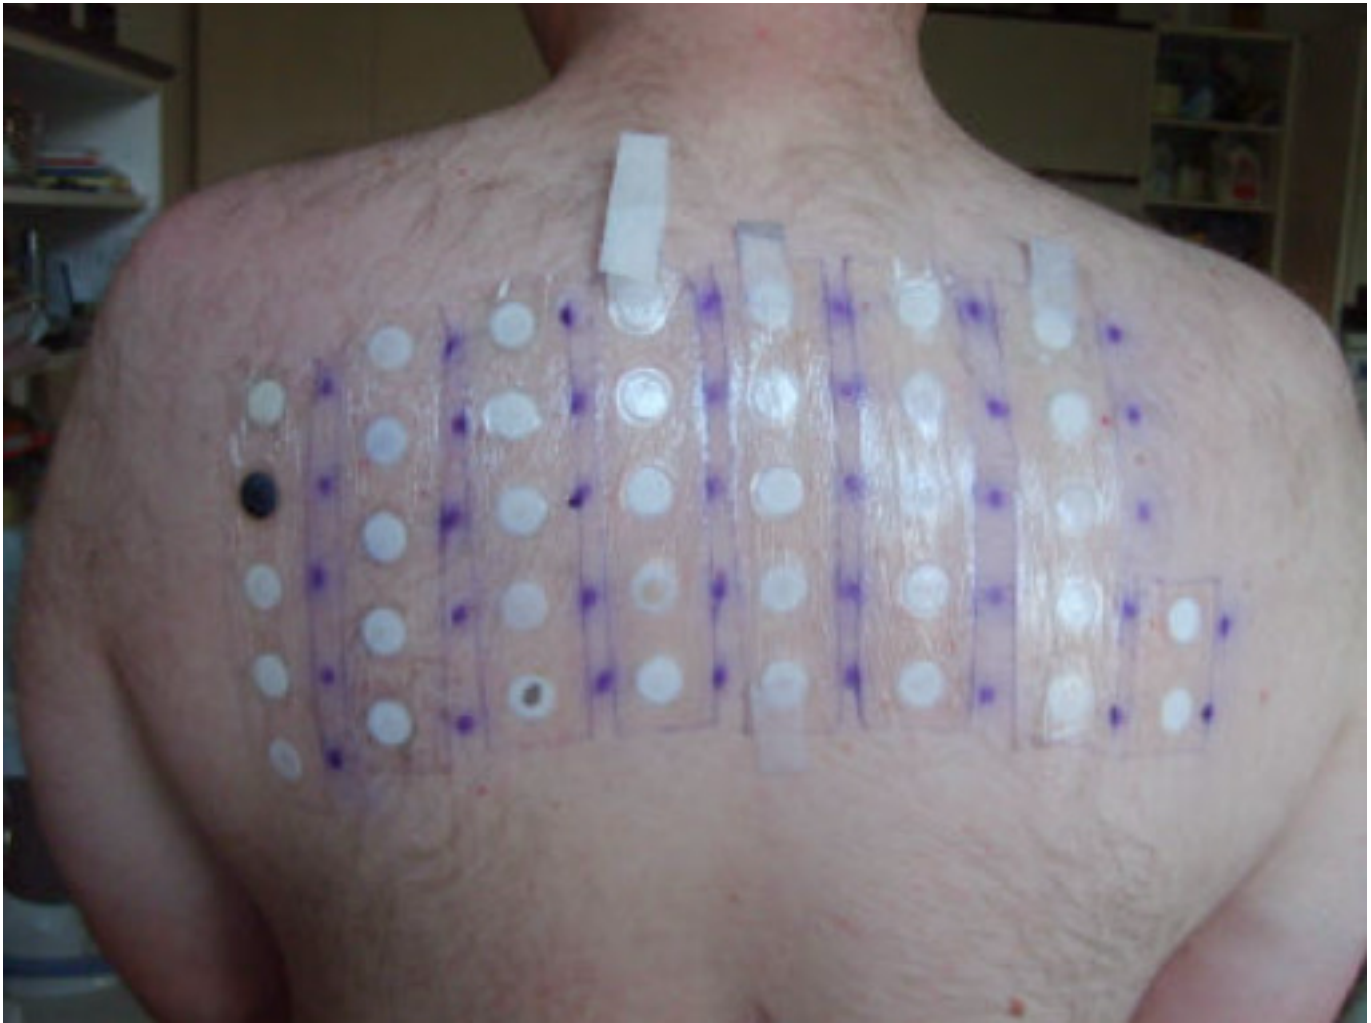

4. A) what is the diagnosis? lentigo maligna melanoma b) what is the most important prognostic factor? Breslow depth, mets
-

5. 70 year old man ? A) what is the diagnosis ? shingles b)
what is the effected dermatome? ophthalmic dermatome of trigeminal nerve
6. A 8 year old boy presented with the following lesione ?

1. a) what is the diagnosis ? Molluscum contagiosum.
B) what is the primary lesion? Papule
-

7. a) what is this test called? skin patch test. B) what type of hypersensitivity does it indicate? type 4 hypersensitivity

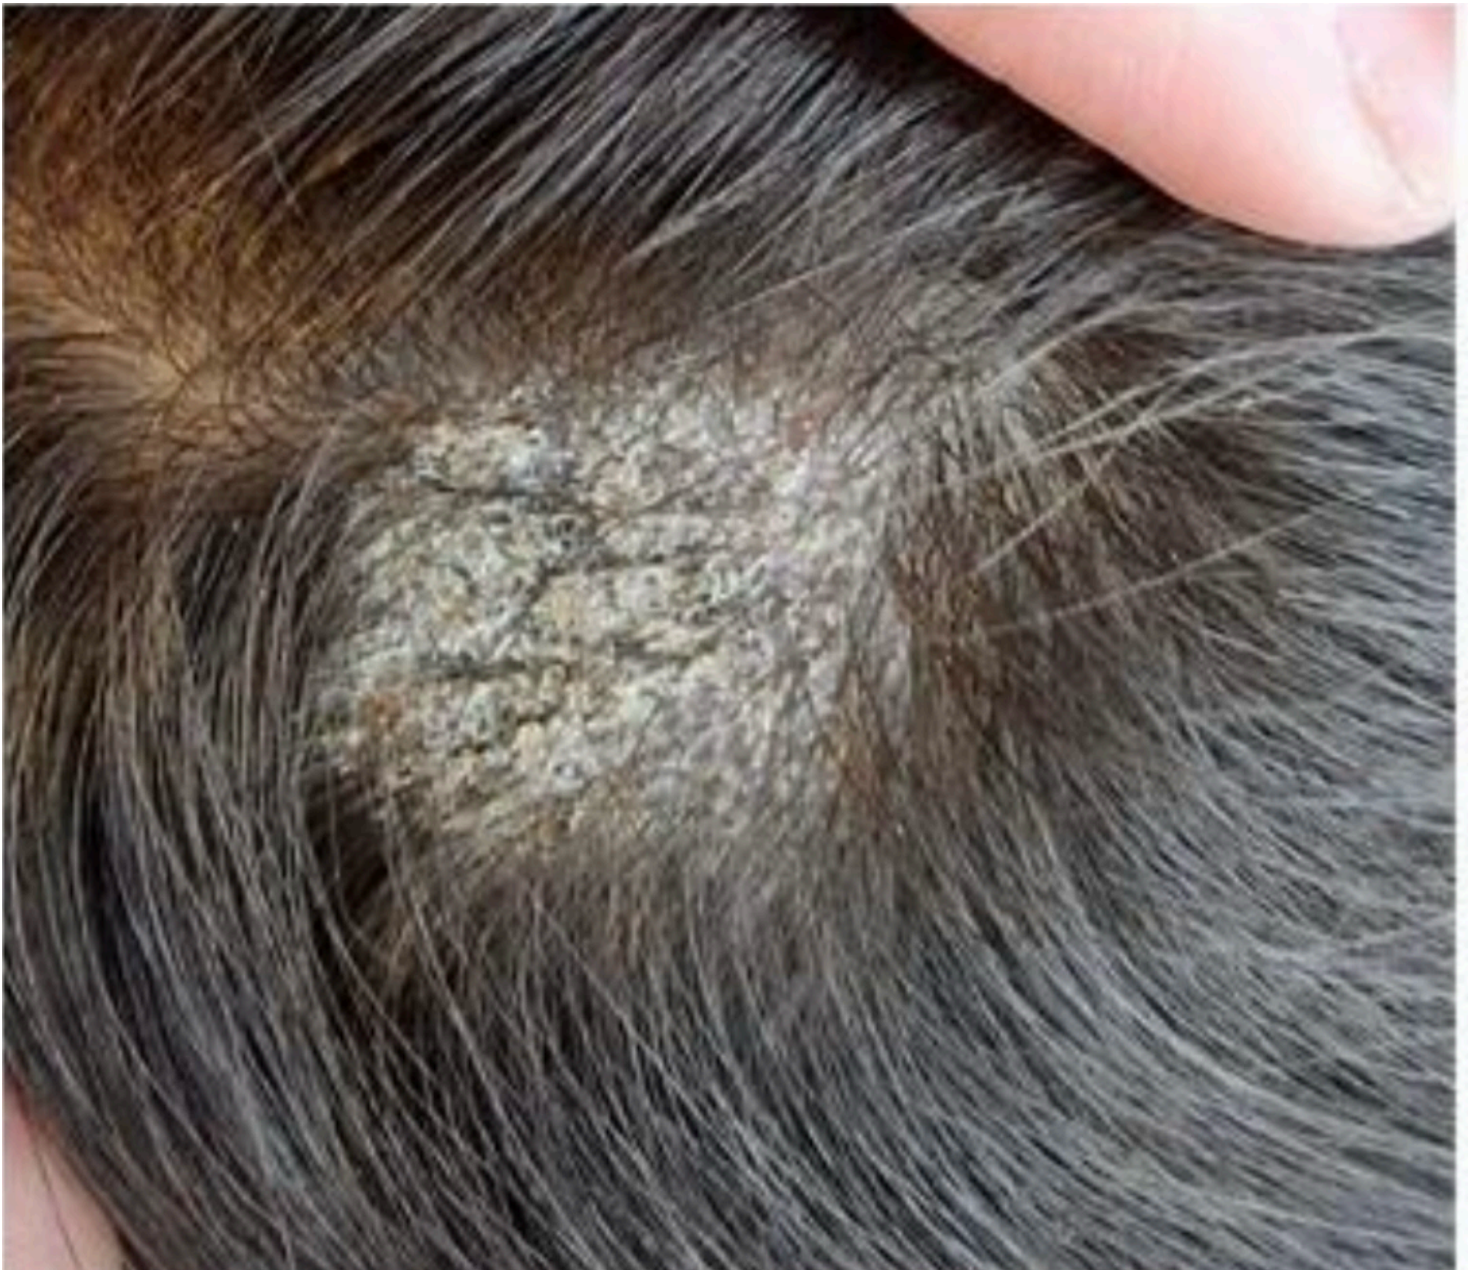

8. A) what is the diagnosis? candida albicans stomatitis. B) what is the causative organism?
candida albicans

9. A 7 year old boy , complaining of these lesions on his flexures : a) what is the diagnosis ?

atopic dermatitis (eczema)
scales

b) what is the secondary lesion called? lichenification or

10. A) what is the diagnosis? tinea capitis

b) what is the type of alopecia ? Non scarring